

How to be More Creative with Art!

FREE FRAMING for your Artwork?

All you have to do is take Art to work with you, or out for a drink after work, or wherever—then, take a photo of you and Art together. Post it on our Facebook page or E-mail it to us and we'll post it for you. Next, just stop by Framewoods of Topeka with the art you want framed, and we'll frame it for FREE!

It's a win-win arrangement.

Here's how it works:

- Just pick up a copy of our friend Art at Framewoods, or, download a copy of him from our website at www.Framewoods.com.
- We have designed a new interactive Art in a paper doll style, let's call him Art 2.0. The upgrade allows you to be a little more creative with Art. We now have him in 4 NEW interchangeable outfits; of course we have the "Original" Art (Art 2.0), the "Stuffy Suit" (Art 2.1), the "Dogs Playing Poker" casual Friday's shirt (Art 2.2), the afterhours "I Heart Framewoods T-Shirt" - yes shameless promotion on our part (Art 2.3) and the plain white T-shirt with room for your logo (Art 2.4) along with a selection of stylin' pants.
- Take one or more photos of you and Art together in your workplace or on another adventure. Or, videotape your fun with Art (max. video time: two minutes) Submit your photo or video to Framewoods by November. 1, 2010, with a brief description of your Art adventures (max. length: 150 words).
- You may upload your submission on our Facebook fan page facebook.com/SouthWindGallery or send us your submission through email at info@framewoods.com and we'll post your adventures on our Framewoods blog. (Your description doesn't need to be factual -- We value creativity!)

That's it! Once we've received your Art photo or video, you can stop in at Framewoods and select your frame moulding and mat color from our special "Art" collection. Just bring in the photo you want framed and we'll create a beautiful piece of artwork for you absolutely FREE! *

So, go ahead—have some fun with Art and share your adventures!

* A few rules apply to this offer:

- Limited time offer: Deadline for submissions is November 1, 2010
- One free custom frame per family address
- Maximum size for framing is 8" x 10"

Visualization Made Easy!

A corner sample just can't give you the complete picture when you're framing art.

Visit us today and let the Framewoods professionals show you how our advanced technology will give you a virtual picture of your frame design—before you purchase it.
